Paws Humane Society Hosts “No Empty Bowls” Pet Food Pantry

COLUMBUS, GA. July 23, 2021 – The Pets for Life program at Paws Humane Society will host a Pet Food Pantry to stand up for pet owners in need.

Saturday, July 24th, Paws Humane will offer free pet food assistance and distribution to pet owners in the Chattahoochee Valley as well as surrounding counties in both Georgia and Alabama. Paws Humane is able to offer pet supplies such as dog food, cat food, and other pet care items to owners in need.

“Our Pets for Life program is hosting a pet food pantry to continue our efforts in helping families and pets within our region with essential supplies showing our communities they are not alone in this difficult time,” says Erin Lucas, Paws Humane Director of Outreach.

It is times like these that we must all work together to continue our lifesaving mission and keep cherished pets in their homes.

Paws Humane Society Pet Food Pantry Details:

- Date and Location: Saturday, July 24th – 4900 Milgen Road, Columbus, Ga 31907.
- 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. Open to pet owners in Georgia and Alabama. No appointment necessary.

Please note, Paws Humane is only able to offer pet supplies to the public as we receive them. While we have a high volume of dog food, cat food and other pet care items, our supplies are extremely limited. The Pet Food Pantry is first come, first served.
